RE: Integrated CMOS Polysilicon Coil Based Micro Pirani Gauge

Dear Mr. Nataupsky:

LIBRARY
OF CONGRESS

The Board of Appeals has recently met and acted upon your February 12, 1998, request for reconsideration concerning the application for registration of the mask work Integrated CMOS Polysilicon Coil Based Micro-Pirani Gauge. The Board has determined that registration should be made for this mask work. The effective date of registration for the work will be June 25, 1996, and you will be receiving the certificate in a separate mailing.

Sincerely yours,

Nanette Petruzzelli
