THIRTEENTH ANNUAL ADVANCED LICENSING INSTITUTE (ALI)
Professor Karl F. Jorda
Summer '04

FINAL EXAMINATION

This is a two-hour open book exam (more time for ESL students). You may consult the course material as well as any other materials. Yet, your examination must be your own work. Do not discuss it with other students.

Write your answers in the blue books supplied, but please use only one side of the page and observe the margins. Please write or print as legibly as possible.

Grading will be anonymous. Please use your exam number; do not put your name on anything you turn in.

Grading will be on a pass/fail basis.

— EXAM —

In her presentation on University Licensing (see slide 29), Karen Hersey spoke of areas "where the elephants might hide." Similar "elephant hiding places," that is, problem areas, exist in all other topics that were featured in ALI. Choosing four topics, discuss briefly what the speakers considered the major problem areas (or difficult issues or special concerns or red flags) in the chosen topics.
