Re: University of Illinois Foundation
v. Blonder-Tongue Laboratories v.
JFD Electronics Corporation

Dear Mr. Silverman:

In connection with the deposition of Mr. Finkel to be taken on October 24th, we would request that he bring with him the following:

1. Copies of all advertisements, circulars, catalogs, news releases, brochures, instructions to distributors and salesmen, memoranda, and other writings dealing with log-periodic antennas manufactured by JFD under its license from University of Illinois Foundation under the patent in suit and the patent application that matured into the patent in suit.

2. Copies of all correspondence, documents, and other writings between University of Illinois and/or University of Illinois Foundation and JFD and others relating to all license agreements under the patent in suit, all negotiations for such licenses and the administration of such licenses, including but not limited to, the policing of the patent in suit by way of suits against alleged infringers of the patent in suit including Blonder-Tongue.

3. Copies of all correspondence, memoranda, documents and other writings relating to the authorization of JFD to use the name of any and all of University of Illinois, University of Illinois Foundation, the inventor of the patent in suit or other employees of University of Illinois and University of Illinois Foundation in connection with log-periodic antennas, advertisements relating thereto and the patent involved in this litigation.

4. Copies of all correspondence, documents and other writings relating to the hiring away from Blonder-Tongue of the manager of its antenna department including, but not limited to, any employment contract with such former manager.

5. Copies of the drawings of all JFD log-periodic antennas embodying the invention of the patent in suit together with the dates that such antennas were first manufactured.

Yours very truly,

HOFGREN, WEGNER, ALLEN, STELLMAN & McCORD

John Rex Allen
